Coming Events

A Special November Event

Discovering Book Treasures

We are delighted to offer you limited editions of classic books all year round, but this time you are invited to come see the real jewels. Janna Gage, who loves finding these treasures deep in the vast and complex world of publishing, will share the best of the best at this Seaport Books event. Now you can see all of them at one time.

November 15, Thursday, 4:30 pm. We will serve you a cup of tea and Marion's homemade snacks, while you enjoy the show. We'll supply notepads and pens so you don't forget the details. During the month of November many of these book treasures will be displayed on our table. Enjoy seeing James Herriot's Treasury for Children, Treasure Island, Jane Eyre, and many more as you have never seen them before. If you thought Darwin's On the Origin of Species might be dry reading, wait until you see this edition. And there is a major surprise at the end of the program.

Holiday Catalog Books

Books are always a well-received gift. We have set aside both sides of a large bookcase to display the Holiday Catalog offerings. You may find the catalog in the Skagit Valley Herald and the La Conner Weekly News or pick one up at our store.

Seaport Books also provides free gift wrapping and shipping at a modest cost. We will happily take your order over the telephone or better yet, in person. We will also order books for you and call you when they arrive.

A New Gift Item for You

Westfarthing Teas

Seaport Books is proud to be our local outlet for a thriving small business on Whidbey Island – Westfarthing Tea. Each tea is a blend of organic ingredients and lovely combinations of herbs and spices. We have five varieties and two packaging choices.

Each blend is named for a literary reference. Cozy up with Herbology Class, Elven Elixir, Inverness Winter, Claire Fraser, or Westfarthing Brew. All available in loose tea tins and tea bags.

During the month of November we are sampling Claire Fraser. Come by for a free sample. We'd love to share a cup of tea with you.

More Pacific Northwest Authors

Tides: The Science and Spirit of the Ocean* by Jonathan White

Now a resident of the San Juan Islands, Jonathan White has given us an awe-inspiring non-fiction literary classic. Tides is a blending of science, history, and storytelling. He captures the spirit of the ocean and its tides by sailing, surfing, diving, and meticulous study, throughout his life. Every boater, every person who lives near saltwater, every person who ever stood on an ocean beach will love this masterful work. It is simply unparalleled. We are very proud to call Jonathan White a local author.
